Internet Service Acceptable Use Policy

- Internet Service, which shall be henceforth known in the remainder of this document as “Service”, is for residential use only within a single household. Customer agrees that only the Customer and residents living in the same household will use the Service. The term ‘single household’ means the Customer’s home and includes an apartment, condominium, flat or other residential single unit that may be used as a residence in any multiple dwelling unit. The Service is being provided only for residential use in Customer’s household and any unauthorized access by a third party of the Service relieves Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board of any obligations. Customer is responsible for any misuse of the Service that occurs through Customer’s account whether by a member of Customer’s household or an authorized/unauthorized third-party.
- If the Service is provided for a commercial account, the Service is provided for the use in Customer’s business only. Any unauthorized third party access to any Service relieves Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board of any obligations.
- Customer will not use, or allow others to use the Service to send unsolicited messages or materials, bulk e-mail, or other forms of solicitation, and/or use Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board in any attempt to mislead the recipient.
- Customer will not use, or allow others to use, the Service to transmit computer “viruses, worms, Trojan horses,” denial of service attacks (DoS), or other harmful software programs or information containing any lock, key, bomb, worm, or other harmful feature. Customer is responsible for using standard practices to prevent the transmission of such viruses, or other harmful software and information. As software or other content downloaded from the Service may contain viruses, it is Customer’s sole responsibility to take appropriate precautions to protect Customer’s computer from damage to its software, files and data. Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board is not responsible for providing or supporting any antivirus software.
- Customer will not use, or allow others to use, the Service to send or receive, or otherwise use any information which infringes the patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets or proprietary rights of any other person or entity. This includes, but is not limited to, digitization of music, movies, photographs or other copyrighted materials or software. Customer must obtain appropriate authorization from such other person or entity prior to sending, receiving or using such materials. Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board assumes no responsibility, and Customer assumes all risks regarding the determination of whether material is in the public domain, or may otherwise be used for such purposes.
- If Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board receives a notice from a copyright owner alleging any Customer has committed copyright infringement, Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board will disrupt service and attempt to notify the Customer of the alleged infringement. Once Customer has been notified, service will be restored. If or when Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board determines that a Customer is a repeat copyright infringer, Opp Cablevision/City of Opp Utilities Board reserves the right to terminate the accounts of repeat copyright infringers without prior notice.
